NUMBER 88

JAMES ARNOLD BLUFFS

SPECIAL VOTE OFFER
NOW IN FULL SWING

SEVEN OPPORTUNITY DAYS REMAIN
BEFORE THE LAST GREAT VOTE
REDUCTION OF THE CONTEST

ANOTHER EXCITING COUNT OF BALLOTS TONIGHT—EVERY BODY WELCOME TO WITNESS SAME AT DAILY NEWS
OFFICE—RESULTS WILL BE SHOWN IN ALL THE MOV-ING PICTURE THEATERS.

The Great Contest for the $2000.00 Magnificent Prizes is approaching its final stages. Only 17 days more remain of the Entire Race. For the next seven days of this Final Period, the Great Special Vote Offer will be in force. Then the Final Great Vote Reduction of the Contest will take place. Every Candidate directly interested and their close friends and relatives certainly appreciate the importance of the SPECIAL VOTE OFFER.

COUNTING OF VOTES EARLIER

At the request of many Contestants, the time of counting the votes will be at 7 o'clock, instead of at 8 o'clock, as heretofore. This will be a much more convenient time for all concerned. It will also make it possible to show the results immediately at all the Moving Picture Shows. Come to the Daily News at 7 o'clock tonight and witness the exciting count of ballots. If you cannot be present visit a moving picture show later on—see the results thrown on the screen—and cheer for your favorite.

HOME OF MANAGER OF SANITARY WORKS IS RAIDED BY THIEVES

Joseph Ryan, burglary suspect, captured by the San Francisco police on Wednesday after a running pistol duel, in which he was chased by a servant girl through the Richmond district in San Francisco, is awaiting trial in the Superior Court of San Francisco on a charge of robbing the home of Harold W. Friesleben, manager, director and stockholder in the Pacific Sanitary Works of Richmond. Friesleben, with his wife, resides at 224 Arguello boulevard in San Francisco. He commutes to Richmond every day.

In the possession of the accused when taken into custody was jewelry, valued at over $200, identified at Friesleben's. Ryan has been identified as Ruben Smith, alias Harry Smith, former convict, who has a long criminal record. He has been in the penitentiary for various offenses on three different occasions.

In addition to being booked on a charge of burglary, the young man will answer to a charge of assault to commit murder.

Smith, or Ryan, was captured after breaking away from Lena Norlein, servant in the Friesleben household. The girl found him leaving the house, after obtaining the foot, John Rudke, who was with Miss Norlein, attempted to hold the burglar, but he broke away from him also.

Nearby policemen rushed to the scene. The robber opened fire on them. A number of shots were exchanged. Ryan, or Smith, received a number of slight bullet wounds. Friesleben said last night that he and his wife were not home at the time of the theft.

BIG AUDIENCE AT MUSICAL

Richmond's clubwomen entertained a full house last night when they gave their musical. The musical was advertised as something out of the ordinary. It was far out of the ordinary. Every number was one of merit, and the large audience departed at a late hour well pleased. Following the rendition of the program light refreshments were served.

The program follows: "One Kiss Day," from Madame Butterfield, Miss La Salle; Mother-Madness, with orchestra, Mrs. J. C. Rogers; "King of Males," Dr. Moore; "Tulsa Ora Vint P'Arte," Miss La Salle, reading (selected); Mrs. Paul Dunlap; selection by orchestra; "The Merry Widow," Mrs. La Salle; solo, Mrs. Farrell; "Modest," Miss Alma Gans; "Sweet Miss Mary and Dolly," Miss La Salle; selection by orchestra.

WRIGHT-SMITH DANCE A SUCCESS

Miss Able Wright and Paul Smith were the hosts to about seventy-five of their friends in a delightful dance at College Hall last night. Superb music was supplied by Richard Henrich, violin, and Emel Esola, piano. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Mrs. J. B. Wright and Mrs. Howard Roe were patronesses of the dance.

JOHN HALEY PASSES AWAY

John Haley, prominent west side resident, died yesterday after a brief illness. The remains are at the parlors of the Curry Undertaking Company, 142 Washington avenue. The funeral will take place Monday at 10 a. m. from the Point Richmond Catholic church, Rev. Father Sullivan officiating. Interment will be in St. Joseph cemetery, San Pablo. He is survived by his wife, Nora Haley; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Wait and Catherine Haley.

CONFETTI BALL OF MIKE AND IKE

Mike and Ike will give their much heralded confetti ball at East Shore Park tonight. With the event only a few hours off, the committees in charge report that all arrangements tending to make the ball the most successful of its kind ever given in the city, have been completed.

All candidates are expected to be in attendance. They will lead the grand march. The snowball confetti battle will take place at 10

Monster Mass Meeting at 7th & Macdonald Ave.

A great open air mass meeting of supporters of the labor candidates will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at Seventh street and Macdonald avenue.

This meeting will be the crowning feature of the victorious campaign waged by the people to smash the council ring.

It is certain to be the greatest meeting ever held in Richmond.

The attempt to muzzle the editor of the Daily News has aroused local interest to high pitch.

There will be a number of good speakers. A band will play stirring music. Don't fail to be there at 8 o'clock.

CANDIDATE WHO HAS MADE WONDERFUL CAMPAIGN

HARRY R. WILKERSON.

This young man certainly stands as an example of energy and determination. Beside holding down his position in the chemistry department of the Standard Oil Company, he finds time to travel as a student in the chemistry department of the University of Pennsylvania, and then still find time to conduct a most phenomenal campaign for votes and hold his place as leader in the Daily News $2000.00 Prize Popularity Voting Campaign. Harry R. Wilkerson was born in Missouri, spent his first years in Dayton, Ia. He came to California in 1910, where he lived in Woodland and there graduated from grammar school. He has only been in Richmond one year, but in that short time has made a host of friends, who are determined to see him the Grand Capital Prize Winner on May 24.

ARREST AIDS CAMPAIGN FUND

Stimulated by the arrest of the editor of the Daily News, the contributions yesterday for the People's Campaign fund were much larger than on any previous day during the campaign. Fifty-six dollars was added to the fund. The total of the money previously acknowledged was $154.50, making the grand total of $210.50 to date.

Those received yesterday were: Barbara Union $2.50; Union Men $5; Engineers Union $10; O. P. 50 cents; Mrs. E. H. $1.50; C. B. $5; Hieblander $1.50; Another Friend $50 cents; Another Worker $50 cents; the "Capped," $1; Mrs. T. E. $5; R. S. E. $5; P. E. $5; Hieblander No. 2 $1; Mother $3; C. R. $50 cents; O. Man $50 cents; Worker $1 Cash $2; Booster $2; "One who turned," $2.

OWENS BILL FOR RECALL EXPENSE IS BLOCKED

Senator J. C. (Double Cross) Owens of Richmond will not get his $7200 appropriation from the state to cover the expenses of his recall election, as easy as he thought he would. Word reached Richmond last night that determined opposition over paying the money to Owens had developed in the Assembly.

The bill granting the reimbursement passed the Senate on Thursday night. A hot contest is expected when it is brought up in the Assembly.

The bill went through the Senate on a fluke. When it came before the Finance Committee of the Senate the committee recommended that it be passed. Members of the Finance Committee were told it would be opposed on the floor by labor representatives. Senator Thomas Finn was one who declared he would not vote for the bill.

The Owens bill was brought up with a number of other appropriations, of which there were several more. It was rushed through very quietly with other bills, when those who opposed it believed it would come up on the floor for debate.

Finn was not present when the bill passed the Senate. The scene of action on the bill is now shifted to the Assembly, and it is a certainty that Owens will not be able to put across his untimely bill for recall expenses without a hard struggle.

Robert F. Burns, Richmond attorney, is spending several days on a visit with relatives and friends in Auburn, Placer county.

PICNIC PLANS ARE DISCUSSED

Plans for the grand picnic of the Richmond Maennerchor, to be given at Giant Park on May 23, were gone into last night in Social Hall. Following the regular session, those present adjourned to the Manhattan Hotel at Ashland and Barrett, where a banquet was served. There was a big crowd in attendance at the gathering. Singing was one of the diversions of the evening.

It has been announced that the Maennerchor picnic committee will hold a meeting in Pullman Hotel on Wednesday night, at which final plans will be gone into.

MOTHERS' DAY AT M. E. CHURCH

At the morning service to be held at the First Methodist church tomorrow, Rev. P. E. Peterson has announced that a fine musical program, appropriate to "Mother's Day," will be rendered. Mrs. C. Bradley will preside during the service.

The program follows: Solo, Mrs. C. E. Adams, "Waiting at the Gate."

Mrs. J. P. Smith, "The Blessing of Women."

Mrs. Ira B. Totten, "Some Mother's Child."

Duet, Mrs. C. Bradley, Rev. Peterson, "Mother's Bible."

Duet, Miss Irene Conn, Mrs. J. P. Smith, "Mother's Love."

EDITOR OF DAILY NEWS ARRESTED-IS RELEASED ON $2.000 BONDS-WARRANT WAS ISSUED IN MARTINEZ YESTERDAY

A bluff, that was so obvious that it has proved a boomerang to the opponents of the labor ticket, was made yesterday principally for the sake of giving the best press of Richmond—the Record, Herald and the poor, mawkish libel provider, the Independent—a chance to flare forth in head lines.

N. H. Matson, managing editor of the Daily News, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 3:55 o'clock by Under Sheriff Willie Veale, brought before Judge John Roth and released on $2000 bonds, furnished by William Pennington and Richard Williams.

"I SHALL CONTINUE FIGHT AGAINST RING", N. MATSON

TO THE PEOPLE OF RICHMOND:

I have dared to tell the truth. For that I have been arrested, and am now at liberty on $2000 bonds.

I have never before forced my personality forward in the Daily News. I would not now presume to use the personal pronoun but for the fact that an attempt is being made to railroad me to jail.

Therefore, I think it necessary to make a statement to the public. It is this:

I SHALL COMPROMISE NOT ONE INCH.

THOUGH I AM ARRESTED EVERY DAY THROUGHOUT THE REMAINDER OF 1915, I shall continue, to the best of my ability, to fight the Ring, the ring that SHIELDS A MAN WHO WILL SINK LOW ENOUGH TO EXORT MONEY FROM MARIOTTS, MONEY EARNED BY THE SALE OF THEIR BODIES.

Arnold, and his supporters, will have an excellent opportunity to make several more trips to Martinez to get warrants for me.

To be threatened with imprisonment is no unusual thing for the editor of a labor paper. I am honored.

Engagement Of a Local Girl Is Announced

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Maude Layton, long distance telephone operator in the local exchange, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Layton of 544 Third street, to Joseph Regan, employee of the United States custom house in San Francisco, was made at a party tendered the members of the Blue Bell Club at the Layton home on Wednesday night.

The announcement of the coming nuptials was made in the place cards to each of the 16 girls found next to her plate at the banquet table.

The date of the approaching nuptials has not been announced, but it is known the wedding will take place in the near future.

Miss Layton is one of the best known of Richmond's belles. She has been a resident of this city for four years. Recently she has been acting as long distance operator in the local telephone exchange. When the announcement of her approaching marriage was made at the party she was the recipient of heartfelt congratulations from all those present.

The groom-to-be holds a responsible position with the government. He is well known to many in this city.

At the party there was singing, dancing and a banquet.

W. D. W. WHIST PARTY TONIGHT

Cash prizes will be awarded for every table at the whist party to be given by the Woodmen of the World in W. O. W. Hall, at Seventh and Macdonald, tonight. All the plans for the affair have been completed, and the committee in charge promises all who attend a good time.

BUSINESS OF NEW FERRY IS BIG

"We have reason to be more than pleased with the business we have received since the opening of the Richmond-San Rafael ferry less than a week ago," said Superintendent Barnes last night.

"We are elated. The number of foot passengers that have crossed on the ferry have more than lived up to our expectations, while we have transported just as many automobiles across the bay as we figured we would. Up to date 67 autos have crossed on the boat."

Already people are starting to commute across the bay by means of the ferry regularly. Five daily commutation tickets were sold yesterday. Quite a bit of freight is being handled every day. The freight business is rapidly increasing.

Workmen yesterday completed the erection of a comfortable and roomy waiting room on the local wharf of the company. Two 3000-gallon water tanks have been constructed on the wharf.

Within the next month, of six weeks the all leading up to the wharf will be completed, and then the street car tracks will run direct to the wharf. At present it is about 200 yards from the car line to the wharf.

The following schedule for the ferry to become effective tomorrow was made public at the ferry officials last night:

Leave Pt. San Quentin: 7:30 a. m., 9:30 a. m., 11:20 a. m., 2:40 p. m., 4:40 p. m., 6:35 p. m. (Sunday only).

Leave Richmond: 8:15 a. m., 10:15 a. m., 12:15 p. m., 1:45 p. m., 3:45 p. m., 5:45 p. m., 7:20 p. m. (daily except Sunday).

THE CHARGE WAS CRIMINAL LIBEL. ARNOLD IS BLUFFING. HE DARE NOT FORCE THIS CASE TO A TRIAL.

DARE you, Mr. Arnold, deny that you and T. Park Jacobs attempted to sell Jean Martin property on the water-front between the Los Angeles Brick Works and the Santa Fe tracks for $20,000? DIDN'T YOU TELL JEAN MARTIN, PROPRIETOR OF THE NOTORIOUS "WHITE HOUSE," THAT IF SHE WOULD AGREE TO BUY THE PROPERTY THROUGH JACOBS YOU WOULD GUARANTEE HER ABSOLUTE PROTECTION AND THAT YOU HAD ALL THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL "FIXED"?

Isn't it a fact, Mr. Arnold, that you, the Martin woman and Jacobs had a number of conferences in Barnum's Cafe, Seventh and Broadway, Oakland, while you were trying to jam through the infamous deal?

Didn't both you and Jacobs tell Jean Martin that the property was especially valuable for her trade, because it was on the water-front and in later years she would do a big business with sailors?

Isn't it a fact, Arnold, that you and Jacobs did everything in your power to force $20,000 out of Jean Martin, keeper of a house of prostitution, and that YOUR part of the deal was the promise of absolute police protection?

What put the hitch in the proceedings, Messrs. Arnold and Jacobs?

Isn't it a fact that you spent as many as five days a week, while you were chief, in the Chinese gambling joint in Oakland, across from Tod and Red's Cafe?

AND ISN'T IT A FACT THAT WHILE YOU WERE SPENDING MUCH OF YOUR TIME IN THAT JOINT, THAT YOU WERE RIGHTEHOUSLY MAKING A FIGHT AGAINST SIMILAR JOINTS IN RICHMOND?

Why did you go to Martinez to get the warrant for the editor of the Daily News?

What is the matter with the local courts?

I.O.O.F. PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS

One of the most enjoyable social events in the past several months was the whist party given by the Independent Order of Foresters No. 4940 last night. Delicious refreshments were served following the games. The prize winners: Gentlemen, C. Schmidt, first; D. L. McNamara, second; Andrew Holmes, consolation; ladies, Mrs. Timmons, first; Mrs. J. G. G. second; J. R. Kinsley, consolation.

The committee in charge consisted of J. Cass, Miss Helen Russell, Miss Grace Curry, Mrs. Kate Kelly, Dr. I. M. Lewis and J. W. Lewis.

THIRTY ATTEND BANQUET OF MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Thirty men were in attendance at the monthly banquet of the Men's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church, held last night in the church, and presided over by Rev. G. A. White. Several short talks were made around the banquet table. Among those present was Rev. P. E. Peterson, pastor of the First Methodist church, who gave a short resume on the work that is being done in the city by the Good Government League.

MASTERLY TRIBUTE TO ANDREW FURUSETH AND HIS WORK

(By United States Senator Robert M. La Follette.)

One morning in December, 1909, there came into my office in the Capitol building a tall, bony, slightly stooped man, with a face bespeaking superior intelligence and lofty character. It was Andrew Furuseth.

He wanted to interest me in the cause of the American sailor. He was a sailor himself, he said, and he wanted to "be free." I did not know what he meant. I questioned him. Surely there were no slaves under the American flag! Bondsmen there were—but Lincoln changed all that. And it had been written in the amended Constitution. "Yes," he said, "but not for the sailor. All other men are free. But when the amendments were framed they passed us by. The sailor was forgotten."

I asked him to tell me about it. Sitting on the edge of the chair, his body thrust forward, a great soul speaking through his face, the set purpose of his life shining through his eyes, he told me the story of the sailor's wrongs. He said little of himself excepting as I drew him on to speak of the long, long struggle of which he was the beginning, and is now finally the end. He spoke with a strong Scandinavian accent, but with remarkable facility of expression, force and discrimination.

He knew the maritime law of every country; the social condition, the wage level, the economic life of every seafaring nation. He was master of his subject. His mind worked with the precision of a Corliss engine. He was logical, rugged, terse, quaint and fervid with conviction.

Born in Norway, the call of the sea came to him as a lad of 16. He stood upon the cliffs and looked out upon the infinite. The life of the sailor, like the ocean, must be wide and free. He felt its mysterious spell. He would be a "free seaman," with all the world an open door. New thoughts were stirring within him. He sailed away, thrilled with the idea that this was to be a free man's work.

His dream was shattered early by the hard realities of life before the mast. First in the boats of Norway and later on the decks of the merchant marine of every great maritime nation he served as a seaman, and everywhere conditions were the same. He found himself a common chattel! He was owned by the master of the ship!

He had seen over-insured and under-manned ships go down at sea, with appalling loss of human life, all because greedy owners would not furnish skilled seamen to sail them, or provide lifeboats for passengers and crew.

He had witnessed the blighting effects of the world-wide Shipping Trust upon the seapower of the white race. To swell its enormous dividends he had seen this great monopoly supplant white sailors with the low-wage, cheaply fed Orientals, until they swarmed the merchant marine of every maritime nation. And he had measured with the judgment of real statesmanship the future peril to Christian civilization as the sea power slowly but surely passes to the Oriental races.

He would not submit to slavery. He could not abandon his beloved sea-calling. His great spirit asserted itself. He studied the history of the sea. He found that there had been a time when the seamen of the northern countries were free men; now they were bondsmen. He sought the source of it all. He found it in the cruel statutes of privilege, enacted at the behest and for the benefit of the shipowners. These laws made the master of the ship absolute master of the seamen. The wrong to be uprooted was firmly embodied in the law and wrought into the traditions and life of all civilized nations. He had arrayed against him the powerful influence of those who owned the ships and were masters of the sea; behind them was the prejudice and public opinion of the world regarding the status of the seamen.

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This is Mothers' day and a program has been prepared for the occasion. The subject for the morning sermon is, "Where hast thou gleaned today?" Let every mother who has no other place of worship come and join with us, each wearing a white carnation, mother's flower. The subject for the evening is, "Lay hold on eternal life." Let us make this a real day of work and worship and come together and talk over our difficulties and problems.

PORTUGUESE CELEBRATION WILL START IN MARTINEZ TONIGHT

Arrangements for the first grand celebration of the Holy Ghost to be given under the auspices of Conselheo Santissima Trindade No. 87, I. D. E. S. of Martinez tonight have all been made and today and all day Sunday the festivities looked forward to with such great interest by the members of the Portuguese they will take place.

The program will commence at 7:30 o'clock tonight with a procession will be formed and a march made to the home of A. F. Madores where the magnificent crown, which the lodge recently purchased, will be taken from its resting place and led by Sparaxibi's band from Valona will be escorted to the Curry hall.

There dancing will start promptly at 9 o'clock and all night long strains of the merry waltz and two-step will float from the place.

Sunday morning at 10 a grand procession to St. Catherine's church will begin. At noon a big barbecue, free to the public. In the afternoon dancing.

While the dancing is under way the Valona band will give a concert in the open.

ANOTHER REALTY LUNDBERG MAY COMPANY FOR RICHMOND

Articles of incorporation of the Fitzgerald-Noble company were filed with the county clerk at Martinez yesterday, showing that another $50,000 corporation is about to be started in Richmond.

The company is to deal in machinery and in a general real estate and brokerage business. Thirty thousand dollars of the capital has been subscribed, with Michael J. Fitzgerald taking $14,250 worth, R. D. Noble a similar amount and Charles G. Yonke, the clothier, $1500 worth.

There are 5000 shares at a par value of $10 each. The company will soon erect a plant in Richmond which place it will have for its home office.

WINE COMPANIES PLAN A FIGHT

A situation that will paralyze the manufacture of sweet wines next year and result disastrously to the California Wine Association unless something is done to remedy it, is revealed in a letter received by E. M. Sheehan, secretary of the State Viticultural Commission, from Internal Revenue Collector Osborne, drawing attention to the fact that the tax on brandy for fortifying sweet wines will automatically jump from 55 cents a gallon to $1.10 a gallon on January 1, 1916.

Sheehan has issued a call to the manufacturers of sweet wines to attend a mass meeting in the assembly hall of the Phelan building in San Francisco on the afternoon of May 21, following a morning meeting of the commission.

LUNDBERG MAY LEAVE VALLEJO

(Vallejo Chronicle.)
Dutch Lundberg, the big blonde slasher of the Vallejo Independents in the local league, may not become a member of the All Vallejo traveling team recently organized by Tony Blanco. During the last day or so it appears as if he may get a chance in that company this summer, and from reports about town last evening he will probably be taken on by the Sebastopol club, which is managed by Bert Delmas.

At the beginning of last season Delmas had the opportunity to give the local lad the once over and he signed him along with Connick for the Victoria club, which he was managing at that time, and in turn traded the two to the San Jose club in the State League, but they failed to make the team when the training season got under way. They had to fight for jobs against experienced players and, of course, the experience counted and they came back home to play.

BALL GAME TODAY.

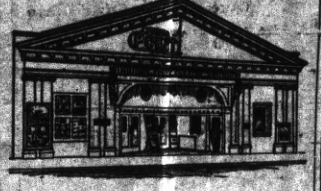

There will be a ball game between the Sophomores and Freshman ball teams of Richmond high school this morning at 10 o'clock on the First street grounds. Pierson and Robinson will be the Sophomore battery and Johnson and Christian will be the Freshie battery.

PORTA COSTA LANDS CULVER

VALLEJO, May 7.—"It never rains but it pours," says Manager Mike Carroll of the Sperry. His latest blow is to lose the services of Bill Culver, one of his outfielders; and, in fact, of late an all around player of the club.

The mighty Bill has been hearkening to the call of another four-making concern and last evening he packed his bag and baggage and departed for Port Costa, where he has accepted a position, and from now on he will be a regular member of Patsy Connell's pill swatters, who entertain the fans across the bay over the week-end. Culver will probably be given charge of the club on the field, as was the case last season, and when he is in real action will be found scooping up the grass cutters around first.

HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE AT THE RICHMOND

Tomorrow's bill of vaudeville at the Richmond theater offers a most interesting series of fine acts that are headed with the Great West, America's foremost impersonator, who gives impersonations of great individuals, living and dead. Among those on his list are Queen Victoria, George Washington, Buffalo Bill and President McKinley. Westin comes direct from the Sullivan & Comedian circuit. Another pleasing act will be that of the Wakefield Sisters, who are as clever as beautiful. Yonahaim & De Kuhn will present a classy musical novelty act.

Today will see the last showing of "The Devil," the sensational play of Frans Molnar, which has been attracting so much attention since its appearance here, was announced. Particularly impressive is the last scene where Isabella and Henry are appealing to "The Devil," now returned to the infernal regions, to save them from the effects of their sin and folly. A distinct moral tone is given the play by the addition of this scene.

BAY COUNTIES LAND WINNER

How much is mud worth? Judge A. B. McKenzie does not know and he asked the Bay Counties Land Co. and the Ellis Landing and Dock Co. to have a jury find out just what 28,235 cubic feet of mud which the Ellis company pumped from land belonging to the Bay Counties Co., but the land corporations say for "McKenzie to do it."

The row has been on in the Superior Court for a week and has resulted in a victory for the Bay Counties company. The land in dispute is located on the local waterfront near Ellis blough.

FAST BATTLE SUNDAY A. M.

Those fans who have ambition enough to get up Sunday morning will be able to see a good game between two fast clubs. The Molders of the Pacific Sanitary Works will take on Newark Stove Platers. The game will start at 10:30.

The following is the lineup of the Molders: Lewis, 2b; Mulcahy, ss; Kimbrey, 1b; Board, rf; Smith, 1b; Mottosa, c; Bradley, p; Hall, 3b; Doran, cf; O'Connell, extra.

The Newark lineup: Burdick, ss; Diaz, rf; Wales, 1b; Skeibo-Fuller, 3b; Condit, 2b; Hayes, cf; Schwart, c; Sweeney, p; Valencia, extra.

"Brick" Devereaux will umpire the game.

Are you a "highbinder"? Speak right out in meed.

If Martinez breaks in on the right map, a score or more of local pugilistic aspirants are planning to try and get on in the County Seat. Contra Costa looks up like a regular fight poster.

Talking about outdoors, have you yet seen one in the bushes that compares with the Woodbury-Cunningham-Daniels combination?

"Brick" Devereaux says he will have to get out his old Tuxedo for the baseball benefit ball on two weeks from Saturday night.

ANGLERS OFF FOR SPECKLED TROUT

Five or six ardent hikers and anglers, members of the popular Junior Sierra Hiking Club, will leave on the 9:20 new transbay ferry this morning for a week end fishing trip to Lagunitas creek, north of Mt. Tamalpais. Fishing there is reported to be excellent this season, and the young fellows expect to return with limit lines.

Among those who will go this morning are Herbert Blake, Robert Lumsden, Eddie Pores, William Stewart, Joe Sharp and Glen Cain.

CHARLIE BURNS IS
FOR ELKS

Unless he undergoes a change of mind between now and tomorrow, Manager Bill Luce will start Charlie Burns against the Ambrose Tailors. Burns is in top form, and with the advent of good weather he feels like a Walter Johnson. He has been working out all week, as has his slab partner, Frank Gordon. Under the present plan Gordon will be held in reserve to throw into the breach if necessary.

The game will be one of the tightest of the season without a doubt. Ambrose will probably start Starasich, the sensational boy pitcher, who has won so many games of late that he has forgotten the losing feeling. The Tailors are the sweetest bunch of semi-pros traveling out of Oakland. And we unreservedly say that the Elks are the fastest semi-pro club in the bay bushes. It will be some battle.

Manager Bill Luce made the assertion last night that all candidates are extended an special invitation to be in attendance at the game.

PETALUMA ELKS
VICTIMS A WEEK
FROM SUNDAY

We have to give Manager Bill Luce credit for being able to hit in the pinches. As a pinch hitter he is a demon. He made the announcement last night that the fans have been waiting for with anxiety and expectancy for some weeks.

Richmond will play Petaluma. The two bush teams in the state that love each other like a couple of strange bulldogs, are due to tangle again, and at a date not so far in the future.

A week from Sunday, or to be exact, May 16, the Richmond Elks, accompanied by several hundred dyed-in-the-wool supporters, will journey to Petaluma to clash with the Healyites.

There is no love lost between Richmond and Petaluma, baseballically speaking. Both towns have the strongest clubs in their history. Petaluma beat the Elks in four of the five seasons the two clubs engaged in last year. Bill Luce is a stickler and he has finally argued "Old Man" Healy into giving him a return game.

After the battle on the Petaluma diamond on May 16, there will be a return game on the local lot on a date to be announced later, probably on the following Sunday.

Within the next days the match-maker will have printed contracts in his possession, which every boxer going on before the Richmond Athletic Club will be compelled to sign. Strict business methods in the conduct of the club's affairs will be in vogue from now on.

Those fans attending the ball game tomorrow are due to see some classy hurling. Burns and Starasich are both real moundsters. Starasich won when he made his appearance against the Elks last season. Burns claims he will do all the winning to be done this time.

There are some fight fans who think that a match between "Plug" Milne of Richmond and Kid Pedro of Crockett would be a whirlwind affair. These boys have met once, and Pedro holds an unsatisfactory decision over the local boy.

NOT KNOCKED OUT

"Jim Lafferty did not knock me out in any practice bout," said Frank Brazil last night. "Lafferty is not fast enough or hasn't kick enough to knock me out, and if he told the Daily News he made me take the count, he was not telling the truth." "I think Lafferty had the gloves on with my younger brother, and that he mistook him for me," continued Brazil. "I'm going to see him about it."

Artie Benham did not get by with Willows last Sunday as easily as he put it over on the Elks Saturday. Benham was touched for ten hits.

SMITH AND BROWN ON FAST TEAM

Clarence Brown and Paul Smith, two members of the Richmond high school track team, have been selected on the all-star track team from the Alameda County Academic Athletic League, which will meet the teams of Alameda, Oakland and Berkeley high on the Berkeley oval. Brown is a low hurdler and Smith is a mile runner. In their respective events they are recognized as the best men in the league.

SAVE

is Marked.

The directions are simple, plain, but positive—Save! Save! Save!! You cannot expect to accumulate wealth or even a competence, by spending all you earn. Don't save carelessly or spasmodically. Follow a system. Make regular deposits and keep it up persistently. Make the start today. Open a savings account here—a dollar is all you need. We pay 4 per cent. interest.

CLEARING SALE

—OF—

A.S. FORBES

Going on with a rush. The clearing out sale of A. S. Forbes is now at its height, and it is to the interest of every one to take advantage of the low prices offered. The sale includes practically everything in the stock.

Special Reductions In Ready-Made Suits

As we are going to discontinue handling suits, we will close balance of stock at less than cost of material.
Suit Values to $25.00; Sale Price.....$10.00
Suit Values to $15.00; Sale Price.....$ 6.50
Suit Values to $12.00; Sale Price.....$ 5.00

Millinery At Sale Prices

Owing to the backwardness of the season, we have a large stock of Millinery, which we are determined to reduce. The sale prices are extremely low.

For the information of those who have this sale confused with the Philpott sale, I wish to state neither the Philpott Dry Goods Co. or J. P. Philpott is connected with the store in any way, and have no interest whatsoever in its future management.
